

Governor Wolf Calls For Sweeping Reform of Charter Schools

Gov. Tom Wolf on Tuesday vowed to level the playing field between Pennsylvania's traditional public schools and charter and cyber charter schools.

Learn More

View Article

PA Will Close 2 State Centers For Intellectually Disabled

The state plans to close both Polk and White Haven state centers.

The Department of Human Services stated that the closure will take up to a maximum of 3 years.

Read More

Brookings Report

Report states "The state has gone sideways." Some of the issues the report addressed are below. Read the full report on our website.

- ▶ Number of Patents
- ▶ New Companies
- ▶ Jobs At Young Firms
- ▶ Jobs in Technical Industries
- ▶ Innovation
- ▶ State & Local Govt. Spending

Read Report

Court Hands Truckers Defeat In PA Turnpike Toll Suit

On Tuesday, a federal appeals court ruled that high tolls on the Pennsylvania Turnpike do not violate the right of truckers and other motorists to travel between states.

Read More

Contact Us

To contact us with any inquiries you may have in regards to our newsletter, our company, or how to get featured in our newsletter send us an email at administrator@ksagroupllc.com or follow the link below.

Contact Us

8 Lancaster Firms Make Inc. 5000 List of Fastest-Growing Companies

Eight Lancaster-area companies have made Inc. magazine's annual list of the nation's 5,000 fastest-growing privately held companies.

The list is ranked by percentage revenue growth when comparing 2015 to 2018.

Read More

ksagovaffairs.com